

Our Mom

We can't explain the love we have for you,
You brought us into your life so perfect and so pure.
Loved us unconditionally, never asking for anything in return,
Nurtured us, raised us, praying that we would learn all the things that would get us through this thing called LIFE as we watched and absorbed trying to get everything right. Sometimes we may have stumbled, and sometimes we may have failed, never realizing that in time all would tell, that everything you taught us would prevail, that you were a mother of wisdom and love with years of experience. We place nothing above all the wonderful feelings we hold dear in our hearts for you, our hearts, our love, our souls, all things good and true. You were truly God's example of how a mother should be, and we thank him every day for allowing us to see just a small glimpse of how heaven is going to be.

WE LOVE YOU MOM

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The family of the late Zelbra Demetries Jones appreciates your expression of kindness and love extended to us during our time of bereavement. Your cards, flowers, prayers, telephone calls have been a blessing to us. May God's grace, love, and blessings keep you and your family.

OBITUARY

Zelbra Demetrics Jones, age 68, of Hazlehurst, Ga, went home to be with the Lord on Wednesday, September 29, 2021.

Zelbra "Meechie" was born on March 21, 1953, to the late Henry Leo and Lucille Jones. Zelbra accepted Jesus at an early age and joined Kirkland Grove Baptist Church; she later moved her membership to God's House of Praise and Worship Center in Hazlehurst, Ga. After graduating high school in 1973, she went to work at the Nursing & Rehabilitation Center in Lumber City, Ga, and later at Ero Industries in Hazlehurst, Ga.

Zelbra had a wonderful and loving personality and was always willing to lend a helping hand. She never met a stranger as she would engage in a conversation with anyone. Zelbra loved spending time in the kitchen, creating delicious meals for her family. Her favorite song was "I won't complain," she did minimal complaining throughout her earthly life. Her battle with serious medical issues showed her courage in facing life challenges with a smile. Zelbra was immensely proud of her family and left behind beautiful memories.

Her brothers, Ronald Ware and Terry Jones; life partner, Moses Parker Jr.; son Andrew Parker; and granddaughter, Aubrey Simmons, preceded her in death. She leaves to cherish her memories, daughters, Nakeba Parker, Latasha (Shannon) Simmons, Ashley Parker; son, Mario Jones; grandsons Trivon Parker and Ethan Simmons; granddaughter, Khalia Parker; and great-grandson Kai Parker. Brothers, James Cornish of Hazlehurst, Ga, Darrol (Katherine) Mitchell of Atlanta, Ga; sister, Pamela Miller of Atlanta, Ga; sister-in-law, Pearl Ware of Atlanta, Ga; and a host of nieces, nephews, family, and friends.
