

A Fallen Limb

A limb has fallen from the family tree.
I keep hearing a voice that says, "Grieve not for me.
Remember the best times, the laughter, the song.
The good life that I lived while I was strong.
Continue my heritage, I'm counting on you.
Keep smiling and surely the sun will shine through.
My mind is at ease, and my soul is at rest.
Remembering all, how I truly was blessed.
Continue traditions, no matter how small.
Go on with your life, don't worry about falls.
I'll miss you all dearly, so keep up your chin.
Until the day comes when we're together again."

A friendly smile, a casual touch, these are things that mean so much. To know you are with us in our time of sorrow, sharing our prayers, today and tomorrow. God gives us the comfort in the form of good friends.
May His peace be with you, His love never ends.
May God bless and keep you is our prayer.

Obituary

2 Timothy 4:7-8

“I have fought the good fight, I have finished the course, I have kept the faith; in the future there is laid up for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will award to me on that day; and not only to me, but also to all who have loved His appearing.”

Mrs. Arlena Williams Clark, the daughter of the late Bertha and Wiley Williams, was born on January 9, 1927. She passed into eternal rest on November 5, 2014 at the Jeff Davis County Hospital in Hazlehurst, Georgia.

Arlena was educated in the Telfair County School System. She furthered her education by attending the Bonner Brother Beauty School in Savannah, Georgia, graduating as a master beautician.

She was united in Holy Matrimony to James Clark, who preceded her in death.

Arlena leaves to cherish her memory

Two Daughters: Rosa Drake and Ollie Booker, both of Atlanta, GA. One Son: James “Bubba” Harris Clark of Hazlehurst, GA. Two Sisters: Eddie Sue (John) Allen of Hazlehurst, GA and Connie (Mobley) Stevenson of Atlanta, GA. One Brother: Leroy Williams of Savannah, GA. She also leaves to cherish her memory eight grandchildren, seventeen great-grandchildren, and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
