

Active Pallbearers

Donell Clark
Larry Conaway
Thomas Haynes

Aaron Clements
Frederick Clements
Kenny Haynes

Honorary Pallbearers

Officers of the St. James CME Church

Floral Attendants

Granddaughters, Nieces, and Friends of the Family

Interment

Cedar Grove Cemetery
Hwy 117
Lumber City, GA

Acknowledgments

We appreciate the many loving acts of sympathy expressed to us during this difficult time. Many thanks for the floral arrangements, the visits, the phone calls, the comforting words, and your prayers have proven to be a great source of strength. May God bless you is our prayers.

Special thanks to Mrs. Mary Tobler Salem and her late brother Milton Tobler for their devoted care of our mother.

~The family of the late Janie Mae Hollis~

Repast

St. James CME Church Social Hall

Final Arrangements Entrusted to Thornton Funeral Home

26 North Miller Street, Hazlehurst, GA 31539
(912) 375-2654

Printing: Full Gospel Press (912) 363-2203

In loving
Memory

Mrs. Janie Mae Hollis

Sunrise
October 11, 1930

Sunset
May 31, 2024

Saturday, June 15, 2024
1:00 p.m.

St. James CME Church
38 Martin Luther King Street
Lumber City, Georgia

Rev. Robert Haywood, Pastor/Officiating

Rev. Dr. Andre' C Lloyd, Jr., Presiding Elder

The Right Reverend Thomas I. Brown,
Presiding Prelate

Life Reflections

A native of Lumber City, Georgia, Mrs. Janie Mae Haynes Hollis transitioned to her new heavenly home on Friday, May 31, 2024. She was born in Lumber City, Georgia on October 11, 1930, to the late Laura Haynes and Duke Clements.

She attended school in Lumber City, Georgia, and later went to live with her late aunt Ida Mae Gregory in Canon, Georgia, and graduated from high school there. After high school, she graduated from a cosmetology school. In later life, she married the late Moses Hollis.

At an early age, she joined the St. James CME Church in Lumber City, GA, where she served faithfully on the Trustee Board and the Usher Board until her health failed.

She was a caring and loving caregiver for her son, Dennis Hollis. She loved her family, enjoyed doing crossword puzzles, and watching all of John Wayne's western shows.

She began her work as a cosmetologist, keeping the ladies' hair beautiful. She worked at Hamp Steel's Dry-Cleaning Service as a presser for many years. She also worked at Sunbeam's in McRae, Georgia until they closed. Her final employment was at Hazlehurst Mills in Hazlehurst, GA.

Mrs. Janie was preceded in death by her mother Laura Haynes and father Duke Clements; her husband Moses Hollis, and twin sons: Raleigh Haynes and James Edward Haynes; her sisters: Emma Clements, Annie Bell Reynolds, Betty Jean Pryor, and brother, Charles (Blanche) Clements.

She leaves precious memories to her children: Danny Haynes of Lumber City, GA, Tony Haynes of Cleveland, OH, Edith Veney of Philadelphia, PA, Larry (Gloria) Hollis of Miami, FL, Bishop Janice Hollis of Philadelphia, PA, Dennis Hollis and Moses Hollis, Jr, both of Lumber City, GA. Her sisters: Mildred (Vincent, deceased) Williams of Philadelphia, PA and Helen (Robert) Martin of Atlanta, GA; She also leaves many cherished memories to her grandchildren: Jason Thompson, Tony Haynes II, Terrance Haynes, Timothy Haynes, Travis Haynes, Kenesha Veney, Edward Veney, Markesha Fuller, Latasha Hollis, Denise Colvin, Dennis Hollis, Jr., Candice Hollis, and Darius Hollis; a host of great grands and great great grands. She also leaves to cherish her memory, a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

Order of Service

Rev. Robert Haywood, Pastor/Presiding

Processional and Final Glance

Selection

Prayer..... Rev. Robert Haywood

Scripture Readings:

Old Testament..... Ec. 3:1-8

New Testament St. John 14:1-3

Solo..... Brother Bernard Clements

Reflections (Limit 2 minutes)

Eulogy..... Bishop William Hollis

Acknowledgments Sister Ronda Clements

Recessional

Shed not many tears when I shall leave;
Be brave enough to smile.
It will not shorten, hoseo'er you grieve,
Your loneliness the while.
I would not have you sorrowful and sad,
But joyfully recall.
The glorious companionship we've had,
And thank God for it all. "LIFE GOES ON!!"

