

A Heart That Holds Us All

She walks with grace, her heart so wide,
A beacon of love, our family's guide.
With gentle hands and a steady embrace,
She fills our home with warmth and grace.

A wife so kind, a partner true,
Through every storm, she sees us through
Her laughter rings, a melody sweet,
Turning simple moments into a treat.

A mother's love, so deep, so strong,
A place of comfort all life long.
Through sleepless nights and weary days,
She lifts us up in countless ways.

To all she meets, she gives her light,
A friend, a sister, shining bright.
Her kindness flows, a steady stream,
Binding hearts like a woven dream.

She asks for little, gives her all,
A pillar strong, yet soft to call.
In every hug, in every smile,
She makes life's journey feel worthwhile.

A loving wife, a mother dear,
A soul so pure, forever near.
Though words may fade, her love will stay,
A guiding star along our way.

SINCERE  GRATITUDE

Our Family extends heartfelt thanks for your unwavering support during this difficult time. Your care and compassion mean the world to us.

LIFE AND LEGACY

Dorothy Melinda Hall was born on July 25, 1963 in Hazlehurst, Georgia to the late Hezzie Jr. and Maggie Fredrick. She peacefully passed away on March 29, 2025, at Memorial Hospital in Savannah, Georgia, after an extended illness.

Dorothy was a proud graduate of Jeff Davis High School, Class of 1982, and later attended South Georgia College in Douglas, Georgia. On March 17, 1988, she married Johnnie Hall, with whom she shared a life of love and devotion.

She dedicated much of her career to serving others, working at Hazlehurst Health and Rehabilitation Center, Hazlehurst Mills, and Walmart in Hazlehurst, Georgia. Known for her kindness and warm spirit, she touched many lives.

Dorothy was preceded in death by her parents Hezzie and Maggie Fredrick, siblings Henry Newton, Wendy Gail McMillan, Mary Etta Robertson, Wallace Sanders, and Ricky Harmon; in-laws Henry Sr. and Birdie Hall; brother-in-law Henry Hall Jr.; and stepdaughter Marquita Hunt.

She leaves behind her beloved husband, Johnnie Hall; devoted daughter, Jasmine Hall; adored granddaughter, Journee Hall; siblings, Ruth Fredrick, Wanda Fredrick, Denise (Horace) Wooten, Bobby (Elaine) Fredrick, Michael Fredrick, Eugene (Sandra) Fredrick, Paul (Oprah) Fredrick, Gregory Fredrick, Willie Pearl Chambers, and Elaine Rucker; sister-in-law, Linda Faye Hall; grandmother-in-law, Minnie Hall; stepson, Maurice Hunt; dear friend, Lynette Brantley; and a host of family and friends who will forever hold her memory in their hearts.

Dorothy's love, warmth, and strength will continue to shine in the lives she touched.

To My Love, My Life

From the moment our paths entwined,
I knew my heart was truly aligned.
Through every dawn, through every night,
You are my warmth, my guiding light.
Your laughter is the sweetest sound,
A melody where love is found.
Your touch, a whisper soft and true,
A gentle world where I find you.
With every trial, come what may,
I stand beside you, come what may.
For in your arms, I've found my home,
With you, my love, I'll never roam.
So here's my vow, forever strong,
A love that sings a lifelong song.
Through every joy, through every strife,
You are my heart, my soul, my life.
