

In Loving Memory of Our Wonderful Baby Brother

Of all the special gifts in life, however great or small, to have you as our brother was the greatest gift of all.

May the winds of love blow softly and whisper in your ear, "We love and miss you, brother, and wish that you were here.

"Deep in our hearts, your life is kept being loved and cherished, not forgotten. No more tomorrows we can share, but yesterdays are always there.

A silent thought, a secret tear keeps your memory ever near in our hearts forever.

We love you,
Travis, Ashekia, Felicia, & Anthony!

Acknowledgements

We, the family of the late Charles Laterrian Stegall, extend our heartfelt gratitude for every expression of love, prayer, and sympathy shown during this time of loss. The beautiful floral arrangements, thoughtful cards, comforting meals, and generous monetary gifts have brought us great consolation when it was most needed.

May God richly bless each of you for your kindness, compassion, and the many ways you have demonstrated your love and support.

Reflections of Life

Charles Laterrian Stegall was born on July 2, 2003, in Hazlehurst, Georgia, to the late Pamela D. Ricks and Charles E. Stegall. He departed this life on January 2, 2026, at the young age of 22.

A native of Lumber City and Hazlehurst, Georgia, Charles was educated in the Jeff Davis County School System and graduated from Jeff Davis High School with the Class of 2021. A dedicated and talented athlete, he proudly wore jersey #79 as a member of the Jeff Davis High School Football and Basketball teams throughout his high school years. His hard work and commitment to the sport earned him a football scholarship to Valdosta State University.

Charles enjoyed spending his summers in Maine, where he worked at a resort on Chebeague Island. He cherished time spent with family and friends and was known for his warm smile and uplifting presence—always lighting up the room when he entered.

He shared a special bond with his older sister, Felicia, his older brother, Anthony, and his beloved niece, Kimberly, relationships that were deeply meaningful to him.

Charles leaves to cherish his precious memories four loving siblings: Travis M. Ricks of Macon, Georgia; Ashekia Y. Ricks of Hazlehurst, Georgia; Felicia L. Ricks of Lumber City, Georgia; and Anthony T. Ricks of Lumber City, Georgia; and a step-sister, Lukina Rowe of Lumber City, Georgia.

He is also lovingly remembered by his aunts, Shirley R. Wright of Douglas, Georgia; Rosalind N. Bess of Canton, Ohio; and Rhonda (Millen) Clements of Hazlehurst, Georgia; his uncle, Stephen L. (Sharlene) Ricks of Douglas, Georgia; along with a host of nieces, extended family members, and dear friends who will forever treasure his life and legacy.
