Remembering Terrence

Terrence Jaziyen McCoy was born on September 15, 2009, in Baxley, Georgia, to Terrence Harrison II and Shirley Marie McCoy. On August 5, 2026, Terrence's young life came to an untimely end.

Terrence was a student at Jeff Davis High School in Jeff Davis County, where he was loved by his teachers and classmates.

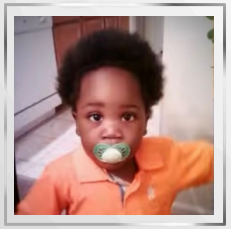

Full of energy and personality, Terrence had a passion for sports, especially football, where his natural talent truly shined. He also loved music and enjoyed rapping, singing, and dancing. Terrence was happiest outdoors, enjoying life and doing the things he loved. Whether through sports, music, or simply being himself, he brought his own unique spirit and energy wherever he went.

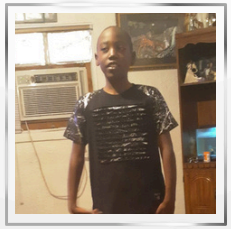

Though his time with us was far too short, Terrence was deeply loved by his family, friends, and community. His life touched many, and his presence will be greatly missed. Memories of his smile, his laughter, his energy, and the moments shared with him will forever remain in the hearts of those who knew and loved him.

Terrence was preceded in death by his great-grandmother, Minister Janice Williams; great-grandfather, Vertis Knox; great-aunts, Edna Mae Chambers, Geneva Harris, and Nancy Salem; and great-uncles, Joshua Bee Jones, Eddie Lee Jones, and Bubba Jones.

Terrence leaves to cherish his precious memory his loving parents, Terrence Harrison II and Shirley Marie McCoy; his siblings, Aliceya Skyy McCoy-Harrison, Ah'miyah Star McCoy, Zamairen McCoy, and Deangalo McCoy; grandparents, Larry and Shirley McCoy, Terrence Harrison, and Gracil (Gregory) Baker; aunt, Pamela Chambers; great-grandfathers, Solomon Williams and Gregory Cochran; and great-aunt, Carrie Lynch.

He also leaves a host of loving aunts, uncles, cousins, extended family members, classmates, and friends who will forever carry Terrence's memory in their hearts.

Sixteen Candles and a Golden Light

Sixteen years of morning sun, A race of life just well begun.
A sudden quiet in the room, A spring cut short before the bloom.
Your laughter echoes on the breeze, A rustle in the autumn trees.
Too brief the time you walked our way, Too fast the turning of the day.
Yet love like yours does not grow old, It lives in stories, brave and bold.
A sixteen-year-old flash of grace, That time can never ever erase.
Sleep well, Terrance Jaziyen Mccoy, so dearly loved,
Now shining as the stars above.
